MC ILVAINE PAYS THE PENALTY

He Paces Death Calmly and Expiates the Murder of Osocerymen Lucas Committed Two Years Are.

New York, Feb. & Charles Hell-prises was shocked to death in the prises here, the first contest being made at 11:13 a.m. The duration of contact was forty-five seconds. In a lew seconds after the current was out off by order of Dr. MacDonald, fresh-caused from the mouth and almost sim-ple and the mouth and almost sim-ple was a surely and a person principle of a person strangling of water going the great way.

McIlvaine went to his death calmly.

McIlvaine went to his death calmly.

When he was brought into the room to inobred quickly about and then fixed his eyes on the chair. At a sign from the chief keeper he walked over to it unlinchingly and sat down. Then he stared atraight shead of him as the deputies quickly adjusted the straps and drew them tight. As the nee strap was edjusted McIlvaine grew excited and abouted: "Let her to." Instantly the current of 1,700 relts was turned on. The dectors, with one exception, believe life and consisuances were destroyed at the same instant. As compared with the Kemmer exception that of McIlvaine was much less distressing.

McCrime.

Bile Crime.

Allvaine was tot quite 19 years old when he insitud his terrible crime, and he had just a married to a girl still younger than him. When passing through Jay street, an open dow in Orecor Caristian Lanns' house ables Mellvaine's attention. It was "an mark," he thought, and telling his manion to wait, he removed his shoes climbed up to the window. While he was soling for plunder Lossa surprised him. Itwaine whipped out a lanife, and, as Lucas coached, plunged it again and again into the value, but the language of the language. Throu times the trails the jury such time finding him guilty nurder in the first degree. Throu times the ref his douth has been fixed. His case has a carried through all the state courts and to supreme court of the United States, and to than two pears have depend since his awrites appalled the people of Brooklyn and y Yerk.

Alten Har Larrance, He.

Lamanus, Mo., Feb. 2.—The westbound limited express, known as the 'Denver," on the Chicago & Alten railcoad, was wrecked at this place Sunlay morning in a head end collision with a side tracked east-bound stock train. The accident hapmaking 80 miles an hour. The switch making 80 miles an hour. The switch which does not stop here, was making 60 miles an hour. The switch had been carelessly piaced or tampered with, for the flying train veered and in an instant was in collision with the stock train. On neither train had anyone a account for deliberation. Both engines were totally wrecked, the baggage, express care and smoker of the limited were splintered and about a dozen stock ears thrown from the track. The shock of the collision was terrific and passengers were thrown headlong over seats and out of berths. Dozens of bruises and flesh wounds resulted, but none of the passengers were seriously injured. Those on the engines were the suffigurers. The dead-house, Ill., engineer of the freight train; Frank Kellar, of Roodhouse, Ill., freman of the passenger train; Thomas Kinderman, of Roodhouse, Ill., freman of the freight train. Chris Adleman, engineer of the passenger train; Adleman, engineer of the passenger train, was badly hurt, and may die

Young Sarrie, the New York Wife Pol-sener, Sentenced to Benth-NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Carlisle W. Har New Yors. Feb. 8.—Carlisle W. Harris, the medical student who was convicted last Tuesday of murdering his young wife by morphine poisoning, was sentenced to death by Recorder Smyth in the court of general sensions, after a motion for a new trial had been denied. Recorder Smyth in passing sentence said that no other verdict could have been rendered according to the evidence. Harris is to die within the week beginning March L. His counsel gave notice of an appeal.

Expenditures Exceed Receipts.

Wassington, Feb 2 — In response to a call for information the treasury department has transmitted a statement to the ways and means committee showing receipts and expenditures from July 1, 1891, to December 31, 1891, including receipts and expenditures on account of the national bank fund for the time named. Total receipts were $175,745,887; total expenditures, $175,994,072. The amount of cash in the treasury used to meet requirements of the sinking fund amounted to $25,505.

Chinese Destitute of Norrea.

The Chinese can remain in one position an indefinite time, have no consciousness of monotony, van do without exercise, are impervious to soise, can go to sleep at any time and in any attitude—all because they have no nervea. It is not to be supposed that this nervelessness is a physiological fact, but it cannot be doubted that the Chinaman's endurance, and insusceptibilicannot be doubted that the Chinaman's patience, endurance, and insusceptibility to influences which would send a European into an early grave are constitutional. He cannot help taking things as they come, Curiously enough this indifference is not associated with want of energy, for the Chinaman is exceptionally industrious. He is simply insusable to warre
